NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS, EASTERN DIVISION

Craftwood Lumber Company, on behalf of itself and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

Senco Brands, Inc.,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:14-cv-06866

Hon. John Robert Blakey

Declaration of Settlement Administrator Senior Consultant Eric Robin re Settlement Administration

I, Eric Robin, declare:

1. I am a Senior Project Manager at Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC (“KCC”), the Settlement Administrator for the settlement in the above-referenced case involving Plaintiff Craftwood Lumber Company (“Craftwood”) and Defendant Senco Brands, Inc. (“SBI”). I am principally responsible for the activities of KCC in connection with the administration of the settlement. I therefore have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein and, if called as a witness, could and would testify competently thereto.

Summary of Activities

2. Craftwood and SBI agreed that KCC would serve as the Settlement Administrator in connection with the settlement and the Court approved the appointment in its December 15, 2016, Preliminary Approval Order. (See D.E. 152.) KCC was retained to perform, and has performed, among others, the following tasks: (i) fax and mail the Notice of Class Action and Proposed Settlement, Class Member Information Forms, and IRS Form W-9 (to Class Members anticipated to receive $600 or more under the settlement); (ii) for the purpose of sending class notification, perform searches to obtain missing contact information through reverse fax lookups in connection with available fax numbers; (iii) for the purpose of sending class notification, perform manual Google searches to locate missing contact information; (iv) develop with input from counsel a dedicated website for the settlement, located at www.sbisettlement.com; (v) receive, process and review Class Member Information Forms, IRS W-9 forms and exclusion requests submitted by Class Members; (vi) report KCC’s determinations to the parties; (vii) through live KCC operators, respond to telephone calls and questions asked by Class Members using a script that follows the content of the Long Form Notice; (ix) regularly report to the parties’ counsel on the status of class notification and settlement administration; and (x) regularly communicate and consult with counsel for the parties regarding class notification and settlement administration.

3. Future activities of KCC are anticipated to include: (i) continuing to respond to telephone calls and other inquiries made by Class Members; (ii) continuing to report to counsel for the parties on the status of settlement administration; (iii) continuing to process, review and report on receipt of Class Member Information Forms and IRS W-9 forms; and (iv) issuing settlement checks to Class Members, if the settlement becomes final.

Giving Notice to the Class

4. On December 19, 2016, KCC received from SBI a spreadsheet in electronic format identified as the “Master Facsimile Transmission Record” (“MFTR”), referenced in paragraph 3.D of the Settlement Agreement. The MFTR was organized by fax telephone numbers, with associated names and addresses, to create a list for class notice purposes (“Notice List”). The MFTR contained 3,731 unique telephone numbers, of which 3,047 contained associated name and address information. KCC conducted reverse fax telephone number look ups for the 685 telephone numbers that were missing name and/or address information. Through these efforts, KCC obtained contact information for 247 fax telephone numbers and added this information to the Notice List.
5. On January 13, 2017, KCC arranged for the fax versions of the Notice of Class Action and Proposed Settlement and Class Member Information Form (the “Fax Notice Packet”) to be sent by facsimile transmission to all fax telephone numbers contained on the Notice List. For Class Members anticipated to receive $600 or more under the settlement, KCC included an IRS Form W-9 with the Fax Notice Packet, along with a cover letter asking the Class Member to complete the W-9. For Class Members with missing name or address information, a separate Class Member information form was included with their notice packet asking the member to complete the information form so that we could obtain a name and address associated with the fax number and confirm the fax subscriber. As set forth in paragraph 7 of the Settlement Agreement, KCC attempted three fax transmissions per facsimile telephone number. Fax Notice Packets were successfully transmitted to 2,843 telephone numbers on the Notice List, or 76.19% of the 3,731 members. True and correct copies of the Notice of Class Action and Proposed Settlement, and Class Member Information Forms (all four versions) with attached IRS Form W-9 utilized in the “Fax Notice Packets” are attached hereto as Exhibits A, B, C, D and E, respectively.

6. On January 20, 2017, KCC caused the physical mailing of 769 “Mail Notice Packets,” via first class mail. These were directed to Class Members for whom KCC had name and address information, but for whom faxing described above was not successful. The Mail Notice Packets were identical to the Fax Notice Packets.
7. For Class Members to whom faxing was not successful and a name and address was not located through reverse lookup, KCC conducted manual Google searches using known fax telephone numbers. Despite these efforts, KCC was unable to locate any additional names and addresses for these fax telephone numbers.
8. 238 of the 769 Mail Notice Packets were returned to KCC by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable as addressed. KCC then conducted address searches to attempt to locate new addresses for these for these 238 Class Members. Through these efforts, KCC was able to re-mail 48 Mail Notice Packets to the updated addresses. As of the date of this declaration, 20 of these 48 re-mailed Notice Packets have been returned as undeliverable.
9. In sum, 3,394 notice packets (2,843 Fax Notice Packets and 559 Mail Notice Packets), representing approximately 90.9% of the fax telephone numbers contained in the MFTR, have not been returned as undeliverable.

Telephone Calls to KCC

10. As of the date of this declaration, KCC's live operator has responded to 23 telephone calls inquiring about the case.

Settlement Website

11. Pursuant to paragraph 4.B of the Settlement Agreement, KCC developed a dedicated website for the settlement located at www.sbisettlement.com. The website was operational by January 13, 2017.

12. The website contained as of January 13, 2017, a "long form" Notice of Class Action and Proposed Settlement," Class Member Information Form and IRS W-9 Form, true and correct copies of which are collectively attached hereto as Exhibit F. The website also provides links to the following additional documents: Class Action Settlement Agreement; Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement; and Class Action Complaint. Since their posting, all documents referenced above have been available for downloading to any person visiting the website. On April 6, 2017, KCC will post the following additional documents to the website: motion for final approval (and all supporting documents); the motion for attorneys' fees and costs (and supporting documents); and Craftwood's motion for an incentive award (and supporting documents).

13. The website also includes a list of deadlines (set in the Court's Preliminary Approval Order) to submit a Class Member Information Form and IRS Form W-9, requests for exclusion, and objections to the settlement. This list also includes the date and time of the final approval hearing (June 6, 2017, 9:45 A.M.). The website also includes a section of Frequently Asked Questions ("FAQs"). A true and correct copy of the FAQs as contained on the website is attached hereto as Exhibit G.

14. The website is able to count the number of visits. As of April 4, 2017, there were 3,748 visits to the website.

Settlement Administration

15. Commencing January 23, 2017, KCC has provided counsel for the parties' weekly status reports containing updates on the faxing, mailing and re-mailing of Notice Packets and the administration of the settlement. These reports included, among other things, the number of Notice Packets faxed, mailed or re-mailed; the number of Class Member Information Form submitted; and the status of requests for exclusions.
16. Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Members are not required to take action to receive payment. Class Members were asked in the Class Member Information Form to provide any updated or corrected name and address information on or before June 6, 2017. As of the date of this declaration, a total of 584 Class Member Information Forms have been received by KCC. Of these, 45 were unnecessary. These Class Members sent in forms merely confirming the information in the MFTR.

Requests for Exclusion

17. KCC received two requests for exclusion from the Settlement Class by the March 17, 2017, deadline. (KCC has received none since the deadline.) A document identifying the members requesting exclusion is attached as Exhibit H hereto. KCC has read the two requests for exclusion and they do not express any dissatisfaction with the settlement.

No Objections

18. As of the date of this declaration, KCC has received no objections from Class Members (or anyone else). The deadline for objections is May 2, 2017.

Costs of Administration

19. KCC's charges to date for administration of the settlement are $18,211.76. KCC projects additional charges for settlement administration through the conclusion of the project of approximately $31,788.24 for a total estimated amount of $50,000.00.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated this 5th day of April, 2017, at San Rafael, California.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

CRAFTWOOD LUMBER COMPANY v. SENCO BRANDS, INC., Case No. 14-CV-06866

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION AND PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

A federal court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

If you were sent a fax by Senco Brands, Inc., you may be entitled to a payment from a class action settlement.

A settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit against Defendant Senco Brands, Inc. (“SBI”), about fax advertisements sent on and after September 5, 2010.

The court presiding over the lawsuit has preliminarily certified the Settlement Class, which has been defined as:

All subscribers of facsimile telephone numbers to which SBI transmitted, on or after September 5, 2010, one or more facsimiles, as recorded in Senco024902 attached as Exhibit 1 to [the Class Action Settlement Agreement] (the “Faxes”).

You received this notice because SBI’s records indicate you are a member of the Settlement Class. If you are a Settlement Class member, you are entitled to automatically receive a payment from the settlement. Only subscribers of the fax telephone numbers to which Faxes were sent are eligible to be paid, regardless of who else used the same fax telephone number.

WHAT IS THE LAWSUIT ABOUT?

Plaintiff Craftwood Lumber Company (“Plaintiff”) sued SBI alleging that SBI violated the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227 (“TCPA”), by sending unsolicited facsimile advertisements and facsimile advertisements that did not comply with the TCPA’s opt-out notice requirements. The TCPA permits a person who is sent an advertisement in violation of the TCPA to bring an action against the sender and recover either his actual damages or statutory damages of $500 per violation. The TCPA also permits the court to increase the statutory damages up to a maximum of $1,500 per violation if the plaintiff proves the defendant willfully violated the TCPA. SBI denies it violated the TCPA and will vigorously defend the lawsuit if the proposed settlement is not approved.

The court has not decided who is right. SBI has agreed to settle this action to avoid the costs and uncertainties of litigation. Plaintiff has agreed to settle because it believes that the settlement is in the best interests of the Settlement Class and conveys substantial benefits to class members without the risk of continued litigation.

WHO REPRESENTS YOU?

The court has appointed C. Darryl Cordero of Payne & Fears LLP as lead Settlement Class Counsel and Frank F. Owen of Frank Owen & Associates, P.C., and Charles R. Watkins of Guin, Stokes & Evans LLP as Settlement Class Counsel. You may, but are not required to, retain your own attorney at your expense to represent you.

WHAT DOES THE SETTLEMENT PROVIDE?

SBI will pay the Settlement Class $3 million. The settlement fund will be used to pay the costs of class notice and class administration expenses; attorneys’ fees and litigation-related costs to Settlement Class Counsel as approved by the Court, and the amount of incentive award, if any, awarded by the court to Plaintiff for its service in the case. Settlement Class Counsel will ask the court to award attorneys’ fees in an amount up to one third of the settlement fund, and Plaintiff will ask the court to approve an incentive or service award up to $35,430 from the settlement fund. Settlement Class Counsel and Plaintiff have prosecuted the case for more than two years without compensation.

After case expenses and attorneys’ fees are paid, the balance will be distributed to the class. Your payment amount will be determined by the number of Faxes that were sent to your fax telephone number in relation to the total Faxes sent to all class members. You do not need to submit proof that you received Faxes in order to receive payment. The number of Fax transmissions to you will be determined from available SBI records.

HOW DO YOU RECEIVE PAYMENT?

The accompanying Class Member Information Form contains the name of the payee to which the settlement check will be issued and the address to which the check will be sent, according to SBI's records. You can use the Form to correct payee and address information. An Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 has been included for class members that will potentially receive over $600, as required by IRS rules. If no corrections are necessary, and no tax ID information is requested, you don't need to return the Form to receive your payment. But if corrections are made and/or tax ID information is requested and provided, you must sign and submit the form no later than June 6, 2017. If the requested tax ID information is not timely provided, your payment will be subject to automatic withholding by the IRS.

WHAT ARE YOUR OPTIONS?

1) DO NOTHING

If you do nothing and the court approves the settlement, you will receive a check for Faxes sent to your facsimile telephone number based on SBI's records. The check will be mailed to the address indicated in those records. You will also be bound by the release provided to SBI and related parties under the Class Action Settlement Agreement.

2) RETURN THE CLASS MEMBER INFORMATION FORM

If you return a Class Member Information Form containing updated information no later than June 6, 2017, the settlement check will be sent according to the updated information.

3) EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM SETTLEMENT

You may exclude yourself from the Settlement Class by submitting a request for exclusion. If you exclude yourself, you will not receive money from this settlement and you will not be bound by the release in the Settlement Agreement. To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must make a signed written request for exclusion that includes your name and current address, current telephone number and facsimile telephone number(s) on and after September 5, 2010. Requests for exclusion must be received by the Settlement Administrator no later than March 17, 2017. The detailed notice on the settlement website (www.sbisettlement.com) provides further information on how to exclude yourself.

4) OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT

You may object to any aspect of this settlement by filing an objection with the court and serving it by May 2, 2017.

All objections must state the reason for your complaint about the settlement, and submit proof or evidence you may have in support of your objection and state whether you intend to appear at the final approval hearing. The detailed notice on the settlement website (www.sbisettlement.com) provides further information on how to object.

FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

Before any money is paid, the court will have a hearing to decide whether to give final approval to the settlement and to decide the amount of attorneys' fees and costs to be paid Settlement Class Counsel and the amount, if any, of the incentive award to Plaintiff. The final approval hearing is scheduled to take place at 9:45 A.M. on June 6, 2017, in Courtroom 1725 of the Everett McKinley Dirksen United States Courthouse, 219 S. Dearborn St., Chicago, IL 60604. The hearing can be continued without further notice.

WHERE CAN YOU GET MORE INFORMATION

This notice is intended only as a summary of the lawsuit and proposed settlement. It is not a complete statement of the lawsuit or the proposed settlement. The Class Action Settlement Agreement governs in the event of any conflict between this notice and the agreement. To obtain additional information regarding the settlement you may: (1) call the Settlement Administrator at 1-866-596-9826; (2) view the settlement website (www.sbisettlement.com), which includes copies in downloadable format of a detailed notice, the Class Member Information Form, and other important information relating to the settlement; or (3) inspect the complete court file at the office of the Clerk of the Court at the Everett McKinley Dirksen United States Courthouse, 219 S. Dearborn St., 20th Floor, Chicago, IL 60604, or (4) access the court file via PACER (information about PACER can be found on the court's general website: www.ilnd.uscourts.gov).

DO NOT CONTACT THE COURT, SBI OR SBI'S COUNSEL FOR INFORMATION. SBI AND ITS COUNSEL, EMPLOYEES AND REPRESENTATIVES ARE NOT AUTHORIZED TO PROVIDE ANY INFORMATION ABOUT THE SETTLEMENT.

CRAFTWOOD LUMBER COMPANY v. SENCO BRANDS, INC., Case No. 14-CV-06866

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION AND PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

A federal court authorized this notice.

If you were sent faxes by Senco Brands, Inc.,
you may be entitled to a payment from a class action settlement.

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY. IT IS ABOUT YOUR RIGHT TO SHARE IN THE SETTLEMENT PROCEEDS.

I. A PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF THIS CASE HAS BEEN PRELIMINARILY APPROVED BY THE COURT

A settlement has been reached in this class action lawsuit against Defendant Senco Brands, Inc. (“SBI”), about fax advertisements sent by SBI on and after September 5, 2010. The Court presiding over the lawsuit has preliminarily approved the settlement and certified the Settlement Class, defined as:

All subscribers of facsimile telephone numbers to which SBI transmitted, on or after September 5, 2010, one or more facsimiles, as recorded in Senco024902 attached as Exhibit 1 to the Class Action Settlement Agreement (the “Faxes”).

If you are a class member – a “subscriber” of a fax telephone number to which SBI sent Faxes during the “Class Period” – you are entitled to receive a payment from the settlement. The fax telephone numbers to which SBI sent Faxes are shown in SBI’s records (Senco024902), which can be viewed on the settlement website. Only the subscribers of these fax telephone numbers are eligible to be paid, regardless of who else used the same fax telephone number. Before any money is paid, the court will have a hearing to decide whether to give final approval of the settlement.

II. WHAT IS THE LAWSUIT ABOUT?

Plaintiff Craftwood Lumber Company (“Plaintiff”) sued SBI alleging that SBI violated the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227 (“TCPA”), by sending unsolicited facsimile advertisements and facsimile advertisements that do not comply with the TCPA’s opt-out notice requirements. The TCPA permits a person to whom such advertisements are sent to bring legal action against the sender and recover either actual damages or statutory damages of $500 per violation. The TCPA also permits a court to increase the statutory damages up to a maximum of $1,500 per violation if it is established that the defendant willfully and/or knowingly violated the TCPA. SBI denies that it violated the TCPA and will defend the lawsuit if the proposed settlement is not approved.

The Court has not decided who is right. SBI has agreed to settle this action to avoid the costs and uncertainties of litigation. Plaintiff has agreed to settle because it believes that the settlement is in the best interests of the Settlement Class and provides substantial benefits to class members without the risk of continued litigation.

III. WHO REPRESENTS YOU?

The Court has appointed C. Darryl Cordero of Payne & Fears LLP as lead Settlement Class Counsel, and Frank F. Owen of Frank Owen & Associates, P.C., and Charles R. Watkins of Guin, Stokes & Evans LLP, as Settlement Class Counsel. You are free to retain your own attorney at your expense to represent you should you wish to do so.

IV. WHAT DOES THE SETTLEMENT PROVIDE?

After extensive negotiations, including mediation before an impartial mediator, the parties have reached a proposed settlement of the lawsuit. Under the settlement, SBI will pay $3 million to the Settlement Class. The costs of class notice and settlement administration expenses, attorneys' fees and litigation-related costs, and any incentive award awarded to Plaintiff for its service in the case will be deducted from this $3 million fund to determine the amount to be paid class members. Settlement Class Counsel will ask the court to award their attorneys' fees in an amount up to one-third of the $3 million fund, and Plaintiff will ask the court to award an amount up to $35,430 for its service as class representative. The court will decide the amount of the attorneys' fees and costs and whether Plaintiff should receive an incentive award (and in what amount) at the "Final Approval Hearing" discussed later in this notice. Settlement Class Counsel and Plaintiff have prosecuted the case for more than two years without compensation.

The net settlement payment (the "Members' Payment Amount") will be distributed to Settlement Class members. Each Settlement Class member will be awarded one share ("Share") for each Fax transmission sent to the class member as determined from SBI's records. Each Share entitles a class member to be paid the dollar sum achieved by dividing the Members' Payment Amount by the total number of Shares awarded all class members. You do not need to submit proof that you received Faxes in order to receive payment.

Each class member who may receive payment of $600 or more will be asked to complete an Internal Revenue Service Form W-9. A class member that fails to timely provide a completed Form W-9 will have his or her payment subject to withholding as required by the then-existing rules and regulations of the IRS.

Each class member (except a class member who has obtained proper and timely exclusion from the Settlement Class; see below) will release SBI and all of its past and present officers, directors, members, servants, shareholders, sureties, insurers, attorneys, employees, and entities, successors, or predecessors, including Senco Products, Inc., and all such persons' or entities' successors or predecessors in interest, assigns and legal representatives, from all claims arising out of or related to the allegations in the lawsuit, including claims based on violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, 47 U.S.C. § 227, and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission under that act (the "Released Claims").

V. WHAT TO DO IF YOU RECEIVED SENCO FAXES BUT DIDN'T RECEIVE NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT?

Notice of settlement was sent to all known class members based on SBI's records. If you are a class member and received a notice and Class Member Information Form, and if the court approves the settlement, you will be mailed a settlement check based on the information contained in SBI's records, including names and addresses, associated fax telephone numbers, and the number of transmissions of Faxes you received. It is possible, however, that you received a Fax from SBI during the Class Period but did not receive a notice from the Settlement Administrator regarding this settlement. If so, you are entitled to submit proof to the Settlement Administrator that you were the subscriber of a fax telephone number to which SBI sent one or more Faxes. To participate in the settlement, you must mail or fax any such proof, together with a signed and completed Class Member Information Form (which is available on the website) providing, among other things, your name, your current address, telephone number and email address, and your fax telephone number(s) during the Class Period, to the Settlement Administrator so that it is received no later than June 6, 2017 to the following address or fax number: Senco Brands Settlement Administrator, P.O. Box 43034, Providence RI 02940-3034, 1-877-839-3322 (fax).

VI. WHAT ARE YOUR OPTIONS?

Option # 1 - Do Nothing: If you received a notice and Class Member Information Form from the Settlement Administrator and elect to do nothing, and if the court approves the settlement, you will be a member of the Settlement Class and will receive payment for Faxes sent to your facsimile telephone number, as reflected in SBI's records (subject to withholding as required by the then-existing rules and regulations of the Internal Revenue Service). You will also be bound by all determinations or judgments in the lawsuit and release the Released Claims described later in this notice.

Option # 2 – Submit a Class Member Information Form: A “Class Member Information Form” was sent to all known class members and also is available for download at the settlement website, www.sbisettlement.com. You can use it to provide your name, current address, telephone number and email address and fax telephone number(s) during the Class Period. You will receive payment for Faxes as determined by the Settlement Administrator from SBI's records (subject to withholding as required by the then existing rules and regulations of the IRS if your Form W-9 is not timely and properly provided), and you will be bound by all determinations or judgments in the lawsuit and release the Released Claims. IF YOU RECEIVED A FAX FROM SBI BUT DID NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE FROM THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR REGARDING THIS SETTLEMENT, UNLESS YOU SEND A CLASS MEMBER INFORMATION FORM TO THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR YOU WILL NOT RECEIVE ANY MONEY RECOVERY UNDER THIS SETTLEMENT.

Option # 3 - Exclude Yourself: You may exclude yourself from the Settlement Class. If you choose this option, please follow the directions below and be sure that your request for exclusion is received by the Settlement Administrator no later than March 17, 2017. Do not request exclusion if you wish to participate in the settlement and receive payment under the settlement. If you timely and validly ask to be excluded from the class, you will (a) not be entitled to any payment; (b) not be bound by any determinations or judgments entered in the lawsuit; and (c) not release any claims against SBI.

Option # 4 - Object to the Settlement: If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you have the right to object to any aspect of the settlement, including the relief provided to class members, the requested attorneys' fees and expenses, and/or the requested incentive award. If you object, you must file and serve objections by following the directions below no later than May 2, 2017. Even if you object to the settlement, you will still be a class member and entitled to a payment from the settlement, and subject to the Releases herein.

VII. HOW DO YOU EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT?

To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must make a signed written request for exclusion that includes your name and current address, current telephone number and facsimile telephone number(s) on and after September 5, 2010. Requests for exclusion must be received by the Settlement Administrator no later than March 17, 2017. Your exclusion request must be mailed or faxed to the Senco Brands Settlement Administrator, P.O. Box 43034, Providence RI 02940-3034, 1-877-839-3322 (fax).

VIII. HOW DO YOU OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

You have the right to object to the proposed settlement, the attorneys' fees and expenses requested by Settlement Class Counsel, and the incentive or service award requested by Plaintiff. To be valid and considered by the Court, any objections must be submitted in writing, filed with the Clerk of the Court – DO NOT MAIL OR ATTEMPT TO FILE DOCUMENTS WITH THE JUDGE; THEY MUST BE FILED WITH THE CLERK OF THE COURT – and served by mail and/or e-mail on Plaintiff's counsel by no later than May 2, 2017. Your objection must include the following:

(a) Notice of Intention to Appear (if applicable); (b) the full name, address and telephone number of the person objecting; (c) a statement of membership in the Settlement Class, including your facsimile telephone number(s) during the Class Period, including the name of the person or entity that was the subscriber of such facsimile telephone number(s) at the time the Faxes were sent; and (d) a statement of each objection, including any legal and factual support you wish to bring to the Court's attention and any evidence you wish to introduce in support of the objection(s). Only persons who file and serve a Notice of Intention to Appear, or his or her attorney identified in the Notice of Intention to Appear, may make an appearance or speak at the Final Approval Hearing.

In the event that any class member objects to the settlement, Plaintiff and SBI shall have an opportunity to respond to such objections.

ANY SETTLEMENT CLASS MEMBER WHO DOES NOT OBJECT IN THE WAY DESCRIBED ABOVE WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE WAIVED SUCH OBJECTIONS AND SHALL NOT HAVE ANY RIGHT TO OBJECT TO THE FAIRNESS OR ADEQUACY OF THE SETTLEMENT, ANY AWARD OF ATTORNEYS' FEES/COSTS, OR ANY AWARD OF INCENTIVE PAYMENT.

An original and one copy of all objections, including any Notice to Appear and all other papers required to be submitted, shall be timely filed with the Clerk of the Court at the following address: Clerk of the U.S. District Court, 219 S. Dearborn, 20th Floor, Chicago, IL 60604. Copies of all documents filed with the Clerk of the Court must also be sent to Plaintiff's counsel at the following address: Scott O. Luskin, Payne & Fears LLP, 1100 Glendon Avenue, Suite 1250, Los Angeles, CA 90024.

IX. FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

The Court has scheduled a Final Approval Hearing for June 6, 2017 at 9:45 A.M. in Courtroom 1725 in the Everett McKinley Dirksen United States Courthouse, 219 S. Dearborn, Chicago, IL 60604, for the purpose of deciding whether to grant final approval to the Settlement Agreement and to determine the amount of attorneys' fees and expenses to be paid to Settlement Class Counsel and any incentive award to be paid to Plaintiff. You do not need to attend the Final Approval Hearing to receive a settlement payment. The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing may be continued by the Court without further notice.

X. HOW CAN YOU GET MORE INFORMATION?

This notice is intended only as a summary of the lawsuit and proposed settlement. It is not a complete statement of the lawsuit or the proposed settlement. If there is any conflict between this notice and the Settlement Agreement, the Settlement Agreement governs. To obtain additional information regarding this settlement you may: (1) call the Settlement Administrator at 1-866-596-9826; (2) visit the settlement website: www.sbisettlement.com, which includes or will include copies in downloadable format of this notice, the Class Member Information Form, and other important information relating to the settlement; or (3) inspect the complete court file at the office of the Clerk of the Court at the Everett McKinley Dirksen United States Courthouse, 219 S. Dearborn, 20th Floor, Chicago, IL 60604, or access the court file via PACER (information about PACER can be found at the Court's general website: www.ilnd.uscourts.gov).

DO NOT CONTACT THE COURT, SENCO OR SENCO'S ATTORNEYS FOR INFORMATION.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States:

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code on page 3 and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships above.

What is FATCA reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 3 and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note. ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a "disregarded entity." See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, "Business name/disregarded entity name." If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box in line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box in line 3.

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the name on line 1 is an LLC treated as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and enter "P" in the space provided. If the LLC has filed Form 8832 or 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and in the space provided enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If it is a single-member LLC that is a disregarded entity, do not check the "Limited Liability Company" box; instead check the first box in line 3 "Individual/sole proprietor or single-member LLC."

Line 4, Exemptions

If you are exempt from backup withholding and/or FATCA reporting, enter in the appropriate space in line 4 any code(s) that may apply to you.

Exempt payee code.

- Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding.
- Except as provided below, corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, including interest and dividends.
- Corporations are not exempt from backup withholding for payments made in settlement of payment card or third party network transactions.
- Corporations are not exempt from backup withholding with respect to attorneys' fees or gross proceeds paid to attorneys, and corporations that provide medical or health care services are not exempt with respect to payments reportable on Form 1099-MISC.

The following codes identify payees that are exempt from backup withholding. Enter the appropriate code in the space in line 4.

- 1—An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2)
- 2—The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities
- 3—A state, the District of Columbia, a U.S. commonwealth or possession, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities
- 4—A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities
- 5—A corporation
- 6—A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a U.S. commonwealth or possession
- 7—A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission
- 8—A real estate investment trust
- 9—An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940
- 10—A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a)
- 11—A financial institution
- 12—A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian
- 13—A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 13.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 7
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 4 and 6 through 11 and all C corporations. S corporations must not enter an exempt payee code because they are exempt only for sales of noncovered securities acquired prior to 2012.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 4
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 5 ²
Payments made in settlement of payment card or third party network transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 4

² However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney reportable under section 6045(f), and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

- A—An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a) or any individual retirement plan as defined in section 7701(a)(37)
- B—The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities
- C—A state, the District of Columbia, a U.S. commonwealth or possession, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities
- D—A corporation the stock of which is regularly traded on one or more established securities markets, as described in Regulations section 1.1472-1(c)(1)(i)
- E—A corporation that is a member of the same expanded affiliated group as a corporation described in Regulations section 1.1472-1(c)(1)(i)
- F—A dealer in securities, commodities, or derivative financial instruments (including notional principal contracts, futures, forwards, and options) that is registered as such under the laws of the United States or any state
- G—A real estate investment trust
- H—A regulated investment company as defined in section 851 or an entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940
- I—A common trust fund as defined in section 584(a)
- J—A bank as defined in section 581
- K—A broker
- L—A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947(a)(1)
- M—A tax exempt trust under a section 403(b) plan or section 457(g) plan

Note. You may wish to consult with the financial institution requesting this form to determine whether the FATCA code and/or exempt payee code should be completed.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on this page), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, or 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.
2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.
3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.
4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).
5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Note. If no name is circled when more than one name is listed, the number will be considered to be that of the first name listed.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

FAQ 1

A PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF THIS CASE HAS BEEN PRELIMINARILY APPROVED BY THE COURT.

A settlement has been reached in this class action lawsuit against Defendant Senco Brands, Inc. ("SBI"), about fax advertisements sent by SBI on and after September 5, 2010. The Court presiding over the lawsuit has preliminarily approved the settlement and certified the Settlement Class, defined as:

All subscribers of facsimile telephone numbers to which SBI transmitted, on or after September 5, 2010, one or more facsimiles, as recorded in Senco024902 attached as Exhibit 1 to this Class Action Settlement Agreement (the "Faxes").

If you are a class member – a "subscriber" of a fax telephone number to which SBI sent Faxes during the "Class Period" – you are entitled to receive a payment from the settlement. The fax telephone numbers to which SBI sent Faxes are shown in SBI's records (Senco024902), which can be viewed on the Court Documents page. Only the subscribers of these fax telephone numbers are eligible to be paid, regardless of who else used the same fax telephone number. Before any money is paid, the court will have a hearing to decide whether to give final approval of the settlement.

WHAT IS THE LAWSUIT ABOUT?

Plaintiff Craftwood Lumber Company ("Plaintiff") sued Senco Brands, Inc. ("SBI") alleging that SBI violated the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227 ("TCPA"), by sending unsolicited facsimile advertisements and facsimile advertisements that do not comply with the TCPA's opt-out notice requirements. The TCPA permits a person to whom such advertisements are sent to bring legal action against the sender and recover either actual damages or statutory damages of $500 per violation. The TCPA also permits a court to increase the statutory damages up to a maximum of $1,500 per violation if it is established that the defendant willfully and/or knowingly violated the TCPA. SBI denies that it violated the TCPA and will defend the lawsuit if the proposed settlement is not approved.

The Court has not decided who is right. SBI has agreed to settle this action to avoid the costs and uncertainties of litigation. Plaintiff has agreed to settle because it believes that the settlement is in the best interests of the Settlement Class and provides substantial benefits to class members without the risk of continued litigation.

FAQ 3

WHO REPRESENTS YOU?

The Court has appointed C. Darryl Cordero of Payne & Fears LLP as lead Settlement Class Counsel, and Frank F. Owen of Frank Owen & Associates, P.C., and Charles R. Watkins of Guin, Stokes & Evans LLP, as Settlement Class Counsel. You are free to retain your own attorney at your expense to represent you should you wish to do so.

WHAT DOES THE SETTLEMENT PROVIDE?

After extensive negotiations, including mediation before an impartial mediator, the parties have reached a proposed settlement of the lawsuit. Under the settlement, Defendant Senco Brands, Inc. (“SBI”) will pay $3 million to the Settlement Class. The costs of class notice and settlement administration expenses, attorneys’ fees and litigation-related costs, and any incentive award awarded to Plaintiff for its service in the case will be deducted from this $3 million fund to determine the amount to be paid class members. Settlement Class Counsel will ask the court to award their attorneys’ fees in an amount up to one-third of the $3 million fund, and Plaintiff will ask the court to award an amount up to $35,430 for its service as class representative. The court will decide the amount of the attorneys’ fees and costs and whether Plaintiff should receive an incentive award (and in what amount) at the “Final Approval Hearing”. Settlement Class Counsel and Plaintiff have prosecuted the case for more than two years without compensation.

The net settlement payment (the “Members’ Payment Amount”) will be distributed to Settlement Class members. Each Settlement Class member will be awarded one share (“Share”) for each Fax transmission sent to the class member as determined from SBI’s records. Each Share entitles a class member to be paid the dollar sum achieved by dividing the Members’ Payment Amount by the total number of Shares awarded all class members. You do not need to submit proof that you received Faxes in order to receive payment.

Each class member who may receive payment of $600 or more will be asked to complete an Internal Revenue Service Form W-9. A class member that fails to timely provide a completed Form W-9 will have his or her payment subject to withholding as required by the then-existing rules and regulations of the IRS.

Each class member (except a class member who has obtained proper and timely exclusion from the Settlement Class; see below) will release SBI and all of its past and present officers, directors, members, servants, shareholders, sureties, insurers, attorneys, employees, and entities, successors, or predecessors, including Senco Products, Inc., and all such persons’ or entities’ successors or predecessors in interest, assigns and legal representatives, from all claims arising out of or related to the allegations in the lawsuit, including claims based on violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, 47 U.S.C. § 227, and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission under that act (the “Released Claims”).

WHAT TO DO IF YOU RECEIVED SENCO FAXES BUT DIDN'T RECEIVE NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT?

Notice of settlement was sent to all known class members based on Defendant Senco Brands, Inc.'s ("SBI") records. If you are a class member and received a notice and Class Member Information Form, and if the court approves the settlement, you will be mailed a settlement check based on the information contained in SBI's records, including names and addresses, associated fax telephone numbers, and the number of transmissions of Faxes you received. It is possible, however, that you received a Fax from SBI during the Class Period but did not receive a notice from the Settlement Administrator regarding this settlement. If so, you are entitled to submit proof to the Settlement Administrator that you were the subscriber of a fax telephone number to which SBI sent one or more Faxes. To participate in the settlement, you must mail or fax any such proof, together with a signed and completed Class Member Information Form providing, among other things, your name, your current address, telephone number and email address, and your fax telephone number(s) during the Class Period, to the Settlement Administrator so that it is received no later than June 6, 2017 to the following address or fax number:

Senco Brands Settlement Administrator
P.O. Box 43034
Providence, RI 02940-3034
(310) 776-8385 (fax)

FAQ 6

WHAT ARE YOUR OPTIONS?

Option # 1 - Do Nothing: If you received a notice and Class Member Information Form from the Settlement Administrator and elect to do nothing, and if the court approves the settlement, you will be a member of the Settlement Class and will receive payment for Faxes sent to your facsimile telephone number, as reflected in Defendant Senco Brands, Inc.'s records (subject to withholding as required by the then-existing rules and regulations of the Internal Revenue Service). You will also be bound by all determinations or judgments in the lawsuit and release the Released Claims described later in this notice.

Option # 2 – Submit a Class Member Information Form: A “Class Member Information Form” was sent to all known class members and also is available for download here. You can use it to provide your name, current address, telephone number and email address and fax telephone number(s) during the Class Period. You will receive payment for Faxes as determined by the Settlement Administrator from SBI's records (subject to withholding as required by the then existing rules and regulations of the IRS if your Form W-9 is not timely and properly provided), and you will be bound by all determinations or judgments in the lawsuit and release the Released Claims. IF YOU RECEIVED A FAX FROM SBI BUT DID NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE FROM THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR REGARDING THIS SETTLEMENT, UNLESS YOU SEND A CLASS MEMBER INFORMATION FORM TO THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR YOU WILL NOT RECEIVE ANY MONEY RECOVERY UNDER THIS SETTLEMENT.

Option # 3 - Exclude Yourself: You may exclude yourself from the Settlement Class. If you choose this option, please follow the directions below and be sure that your request for exclusion is received by the Settlement Administrator no later than March 17, 2017. Do not request exclusion if you wish to participate in the settlement and receive payment under the settlement. If you timely and validly ask to be excluded from the class, you will (a) not be entitled to any payment; (b) not be bound by any determinations or judgments entered in the lawsuit; and (c) not release any claims against SBI.

Option # 4 - Object to the Settlement: If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you have the right to object to any aspect of the settlement, including the relief provided to class members, the requested attorneys' fees and expenses, and/or the requested incentive award. If you object, you must file and serve objections by following the directions below no later than May 2, 2017. Even if you object to the settlement, you will still be a class member and entitled to a payment from the settlement, and subject to the Releases herein.

HOW DO YOU EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT?

To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must make a signed written request for exclusion that includes your name and current address, current telephone number and facsimile telephone number(s) on and after September 5, 2010. Requests for exclusion must be received by the Settlement Administrator no later than March 17, 2017. Your exclusion request must be mailed or faxed to:

Senco Brands Settlement Administrator
P.O. Box 43034
Providence, RI 02940-3034
(310) 776-8385 (fax)

FAQ 8

HOW DO YOU OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT?

You have the right to object to the proposed settlement, the attorneys' fees and expenses requested by Settlement Class Counsel, and the incentive or service award requested by Plaintiff. To be valid and considered by the Court, any objections must be submitted in writing, filed with the Clerk of the Court – DO NOT MAIL OR ATTEMPT TO FILE DOCUMENTS WITH THE JUDGE; THEY MUST BE FILED WITH THE CLERK OF THE COURT – and served by mail and/or e-mail on Plaintiff's counsel by no later than May 2, 2017. Your objection must include the following:

- a) Notice of Intention to Appear (if applicable);
- b) The full name, address and telephone number of the person objecting;
- c) A statement of membership in the Settlement Class, including your facsimile telephone number(s) during the Class Period, including the name of the person or entity that was the subscriber of such facsimile telephone number(s) at the time the Faxes were sent; and
- d) A statement of each objection, including any legal and factual support you wish to bring to the Court's attention and any evidence you wish to introduce in support of the objection(s).

Only persons who file and serve a Notice of Intention to Appear, or his or her attorney identified in the Notice of Intention to Appear, may make an appearance or speak at the Final Approval Hearing.

In the event that any class member objects to the settlement, Plaintiff and SBI shall have an opportunity to respond to such objections.

ANY SETTLEMENT CLASS MEMBER WHO DOES NOT OBJECT IN THE WAY DESCRIBED ABOVE WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE WAIVED SUCH OBJECTIONS AND SHALL NOT HAVE ANY RIGHT TO OBJECT TO THE FAIRNESS OR ADEQUACY OF THE SETTLEMENT, ANY AWARD OF ATTORNEYS' FEES/COSTS, OR ANY AWARD OF INCENTIVE PAYMENT.

An original and one copy of all objections, including any Notice to Appear and all other papers required to be submitted, shall be timely filed with the Clerk of the Court at the following address:

Clerk of the U.S. District Court
219 S. Dearborn, 20th Floor
Chicago, IL 60604

Copies of all documents filed with the Clerk of the Court must also be sent to Plaintiff's counsel at the following address:

Scott O. Luskin
Payne & Fears LLP
1100 Glendon Avenue, Suite 1250
Los Angeles, CA 90024.
